EXPLORE

In the center of Chicago's West Loop Neighborhood and famed "Restaurant Row," Nobu Hotel Chicago has an ideal location in the center of the city's energy and flavor. The selection of attractions within these few blocks are astounding. Guests can go from sushi bar to sports bar, bakery to brewery, wine tasting to taquería, butcher shop to champagne salon, late-night diner to futuristic cocktail lounge — all within walking distance. Specialty foods galore also abound at the nearby Chicago French Market, the city's only year-round, indoor marketplace. Interspersed among the West Loop luxe lofts and the chic retail boutiques are galleries, design stores and antique sources that give the area its creative-edginess.
